

A BNW × SAAR DEVELOPMENT

THE ARCHITECT'S DESIGN PHILOSOPHY

Taj Wellington Mews embodies the confluence of heritage and innovation, crafting refined luxury. Its two interconnected towers, curving atop a circular podium, form a striking statement of modernity and grandeur. Thoughtfully designed balconies enhance the façade, blending artistry with structural ingenuity for a quiet yet commanding presence.

More than a backdrop, the curated landscape fosters serenity and balance. Inside, precision meets comfort, embracing understated opulence. Positioned on Al Marjan Island, this development merges Taj's legacy with BNW Developments' vision, where architecture redefines the human experience. Here, living transcends the ordinary, and every detail is imbued with purpose and distinction.
